CURBSIDE RECYCLING AND TRASH COLLECTION WILL OPERATE ON A SLIDE SCHEDULE NEXT WEEK

HOLIDAY NOTICE: Thursday, November 26 is Thanksgiving Day

INDIANAPOLIS – The Indianapolis Department of Public Works would like to remind residents that curbside recycling, leaf and residential and heavy trash collection will operate on a slide schedule later this week in observance of the Thanksgiving Day holiday.

There will be NO Residential Solid Waste, Leaf, Heavy Trash, or Curbside Recycling service on that day in honor of the holiday. All services will run one day behind for the remainder of the week. Thursday routes will be picked up on Friday, November 27, and Friday routes will be serviced on Saturday, November 28. All schedules will return to normal on Monday, November 30.

Future city government holidays affecting curbside recycling and trash collection include Christmas and New Year's Day. For more information, please call the Mayor's Action Center at 317.327-4MAC.
